

Directions to the Corinthian Club - Friday Dinner

You will need to take the subway to Glasgow City Centre to reach the Corinthian Club. Tickets cost £1.60 for a single or £3.00 for a return. Alternatively, a taxi rank (shown on the map) can be found on Byres Road.

Once you leave the main gate of the University, turn left onto University Avenue and continue until you reach Byres Road. Turn right and continue for two minutes. Hillhead subway will be on your right. Take the subway (you need the outer circle) to Buchanan Street station.

Exit Buchanan Street subway by double-backing on yourself as soon as you exit the ticket gates. You will emerge on Buchanan Street itself. Head downhill and turn left onto West George Street. Carry on ahead and the road becomes George Square. Head straight on and then right, skirting around George Square. Continue onto South Frederick Street and the Corinthian Club will be at the end of the street across Ingram Street. If you are returning to the West End after the dinner, please note that the last subway train departs Buchanan Street station at 2329. You will need to take the Inner Circle.
