

How to get here

Air

Glasgow International Airport

- 7 miles west of the University
- Bus service to the west end of Glasgow which stops minutes from the University
- Taxi fare to West End costs approximately £1520
- Direct flight connections to all major European hubs, plus North America and the Middle East

Prestwick International Airport

- 22 miles south west of the University
- Own rail station
- Bus service to city centre

Edinburgh International Airport

- 42 miles east of the University
- 48-minute train ride to Glasgow (depart every 15 minutes during peak hours)

By coach

Buchanan Bus Station is the main terminus for long distance coaches. Routes 11 and 44 run through the main campus from the city centre. Numerous other routes serve Dumbarton Road, Great Western Road and Byres Road. A seasonal tourist bus stops at the University. Timetables at www.travelinescotland.com

By train

There are two city-centre terminals, Queen Street and Central (served by Buchanan St and St Enoch subway stations respectively). Timetables at www.travelinescotland.com. The nearest suburban rail station is Partick, about one mile to the west of the University. It has an interchange with the underground and with bus services on Dumbarton Road.

Subway

The main station for the University is Hillhead.

Road

Motorway links provide access to major UK cities.

From Carlisle, Newcastle and the south, exit M74 on to the M73, joining the M8 at the Old Monkland junction. M8 exits for the University are J18 if travelling from the south, Edinburgh and the north and J19 if coming from Glasgow Airport and the west. Other main routes serving the University include Great Western Road (A82, north of campus), Clydeside Expressway (A814, south) and Byres Road (B808, west). Car parking on the University campus and surrounding area is extremely difficult. Also see Getting around Glasgow

By taxi

Black taxi cabs can be picked up at most times in the University area and the city centre.
