

Phil's Festschrift & GIST Reunion

Level 5, Sir Alwyn Williams Building, Department of Computing Science, Glasgow University.

Monday, June 14th

09.30	Coffee
10.00	Chaired by: Muffy Calder	Alistair Kilgour	Interactive System Architecture: a Brief Guide to Prehistory
10.30		Aran Lunzer	Might as well face it, I'm addicted to Squeak..
11.00		Jackie Moyes	Ethnographic research and product strategy: Market-focused business strategy
11.30		Coffee
12.00		Gilbert Cockton	Move over Darling Science: Finding Places for Philosophy in Interaction Design and a Place for Interaction Design in (Non-) Philosophies
12.30		Steve Draper	HCI matters but does HE teaching skill? A search for common lessons, and a selection of big and surprising effects in teaching innovations
13.00		Lunch (not provided)
14.30	Chaired by: Steve Brewster	Stephen Brewster	Multimodal and mobile
15.00		Rod Murray-Smith	Dispatches from the outer reaches of HCI
15.30		Tea
16.00		Matthew Chalmers	A Population Approach to Ubicomp System Design
16.30		Marilyn McGee-Lennon	Caring Computing
17.00		Phil Gray	Responses, Reflection and Retribution...

We are having a series of events to celebrate the brief return of some former GIST members and to say thanks for Phil's contribution to GIST while they are with us. Everyone in the Department is invited. Please mail Johnson@dcs.gla.ac.uk if you need any further information.